Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Emma Grace (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Alone in the tapestry of a shimmering green forest, standing on a mist covered mountain top, or crossing a rippling creek, we find her majesty. In that place of serenity, nature sends her emissaries. If only we are willing to see and hear her sometimes subtle yet powerful ways. Mystical Animals of Ancient Oak is a series of true stories that chronicles the journey that Cynthia Fain took after her mother nearly died. Along that uncharted emotional path, nature sent Cynthia her finest healers in the forms of a flightless duck, a cat that served as ambassador to her apartment complex, an aging squirrel that fulfilled his dream the day before he died, and a commanding squirrel. Part One of the book begins after Cynthias mother awoke from many years of alcoholism, and she re-discovered a community park that became her sanctuary. Those daily walks sparked a new seed of life, and helped Cynthia to shed the dark veils of her childhood and adolescence. These stories tell of the amazing animals that brought love and joy into Cynthias life as her mother awakened to a new life of sobriety. Learning to connect with animals and nature is an important tool on our path to healing. Animal lovers, those seeking healing and anyone who longs for a deeper connection to the natural world will enjoy reading these stories. In Part Two, the journey continues with Cynthias move to the community of Ancient Oak where every day the animals charmed her life. A black squirrel reigned over her yard; a lost cat vacationed in her shed; colonies of chipmunks cleverly outwitted the squirrels; baby...
