Reviews

This is the finest book i have got go through right up until now. I have got read and i also am confident that i am going to planning to read once again yet again in the future. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for about if you check with me).

Authorhouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 304 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.0in. x 0.8in. Fourteen year old Sam Starr, homeless in the southern Georgia swamps and the sole survivor of a once large family, took a longshot and headed for parts unknown. Rounding up all of the farm animals, including the chickens, the cats and dogs, as well as every usable item on the family farm, Sam headed blindly out of the swamp after the Smiths and murdered his father, the last of Sams family, and burned the cabin. Sam had been out of the swamp just once before, when he was twelve, and knew nothing about the outside world. His neighbors, those who had murdered his family, lived thirty miles to the south, while the nearest settlement was fifty miles to the northwest. Blindly leading his yoke of oxen and team of mules toward the west, Sam experienced hundreds of set backs and many triumphs before reaching the place he decided to call home, five years later and three thousand miles from the swamps. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
