Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In Character Caveat, author Willard F. Rockwell III, nicknamed Terry, analyzes the lives of Old Testament characters Elijah, Esther, Tamar, Jeroboam, Samson, and Uzzah, finding that behind all their lives is a background truth embodied by Psalm 93: the Lord reigns and is mighty. As you delve into Character Caveat, you will discover that God uses faith to establish his holiness. Terry's study of these Old Testament figures discloses the numerous opportunities the Lord gives us to accept his character, showing that these opportunities are often neglected. God's compassion is demonstrated through his willingness to share his character, saving us from the desolation our carnal nature would guarantee on its own. Learn from those who have gone before you how destructive rejecting God's Word can be and how you can overcome temptation in order to emulate the Lord's character. Heed the Lord's Character Caveat and reap the benefits of having a godly character. Terry Rockwell knows where character comes from. When the famous heroes of the Old Testament relied on their...
