Excerpt: .and--horses can t be overtaken by a man on foot. He will say that we have deserted him, and that will be true. You can leave a letter with the Molimo explaining that it was my fault, that I was getting ill and thought that I should die, and that you knew it would not be fair to ask him to come, and so to lose the treasure, to every halfpenny of which he is welcome when it is found. Oh! father, don t hesitate any longer; say that you will take me away from Mr. Meyer. So be it then, answered Mr. Clifford, and as he spoke, hearing a sound, they looked up and saw Jacob approaching them. Luckily he was so occupied with his own thoughts that he never noted the guilty air upon their faces, and they had time to compose themselves...
