Excerpt: . . . 11 Each of our proposals, including the provision related to the Marine Mammal Protection Act, are limited to Military Readiness Activities. Our initiatives have been portrayed by some as attempting to exempt and grant special reprieve to DoD from environmental statutes, give the Department of Defense a blanket exemption to ignore our laws, and violate the principle that no government agency should be above the law. In reality, our initiative would apply only to military readiness activities. We believe we must recognize the military's unique duty to prepare for and win armed conflicts - unlike any private organization, State, or local government. The requested changes are therefore narrowly focused on military readiness activities - those actions necessary to discharge that duty. They will not affect DoD's compliance with environmental laws in the management of its infrastructure or industrial operations that are similar to those of private companies. We Do Not Seek Exemptions from Environmental Law. Our initiative...
