Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Notes and Queries: A Medium of Inter-Communication for Literary Men, General Readers, Etc On the verso of the card are some memoranda of money matters, and the date ye 21rst March, 1751. The letter now to be given contains neither date nor signature; but I think the name of the writer (evidently a Scotchman) will be ascertained from a comparison of the writing and with other papers of the same period. The date is approximately determinable as 1769 or 1770, from the references to the death of the Chevalier de St. George (the Old Pretender) and to the flight of Miss Walkinshaw with their child. The proposal to repudiate the National Debt is very curious and amusing; - It was most certainly a very great affront and Injury done to the Prince to carry from him his Daughter, that behaved to be a fine amusement to Him in his solitary way of liveing, while still expecting better Times. When He Discovers Him that acted it, or had a share in the Crime, He or they...
